

Rebranding of Baker Tilly UK Group LLP – UPDATE

You may have seen in the press the news that 'Baker Tilly has become RSM'. We would like to clarify this development.

As you know, our firm is an independent member of Baker Tilly International, the world's 8th largest network of accounting and business advisory firms.

The network's former UK member firm, Baker Tilly UK Group LLP (trading as Baker Tilly), left Baker Tilly International last year to join RSM International. On 26 October 2015, all member firms within the RSM International network rebranded to 'RSM'; this included Baker Tilly UK Group LLP.

This rebrand does not impact Baker Tilly Morrison Murray or any member firm within Baker Tilly International, nor does it change how we do business with you. Our firm remains Baker Tilly Morrison Murray, and will continue to provide you with the exceptional client service that you have come to expect from us.

We are committed members of Baker Tilly International and will continue to work with you to support you as you successfully grow your business and expand into new geographic locations around the globe.
